SUMMARY

Dedicated software engineering student with a robust foundation in technology and a diverse journey in the field. Commenced with a Microsoft Office course through SEEP by Save the Children during college, which ignited a passion for web development and digital marketing. Embarked on a freelancing career on platforms like Fiverr and Upwork, gaining valuable industry experience for nearly a year.

To prioritize academic pursuits, took a hiatus from freelancing upon entering Daffodil International University for a Bachelors's in Software Engineering. Began the programming journey with C, delving into competitive programming on platforms such as Beecrowd and Codeforces, mastering data structures and algorithms. Augmented programming skills by adopting C++.

Recognizing the potential in web development, embarked on a learning journey encompassing JavaScript, MySQL, PHP, React.js, and MaterialUI. Currently engrossed in advancing proficiency in web technologies with an eagerness to acquire invaluable experiences.

Seeking opportunities to contribute, learn, and grow in a dynamic and collaborative software development environment.
